ARTS UNIVERSITY BOURNEMOUTH

ENVIRONMENT COMMITTEE

Terms of reference, constitution, and membership

Purpose

The purpose of Environment Committee is to monitor and promote sustainability in all its aspects by identifying, raising awareness of and championing good practice in environmental management and the use of non-renewable resources, and make recommendations to the Management Group and relevant committees and boards.

Constitution and membership

- University Secretary (Chair)
- Head of Estates and Campus Services
- Environment and Sustainability Manager
- Head of Digital Services
- Vice-President of Students' Union
- SU Green representative
- Heads of Technical Services, or nominees
- Four nominated academic representatives to ensure coverage of the full academic offer
- Up to two representatives of the professional services, nominated by the Chair
- One representative of the recognised Trades Unions
- Up to two members co-opted by the Chair
- Secretary (in attendance)

Quorum is 50% minimum attendance