1. Institutional and Financial Assistance Information for Students

AUB will contact all registered applicants who are identified within the student record system as being United States citizens to confirm that AUB is a participating Title IV school and that we administer the Direct Loan Program (including PLUS loans).

To access Direct Loans to support their studies, students must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and confirm that AUB is their nominated School. Upon receipt of the student's FAFSA information the AUB US loan team will contact the student by email to confirm any additional information that is required to support processing of their Direct Loan application.

2. Contact Information for Assistance in Obtaining Institutional or Financial Aid Information

ARTS UNIVERSITY BOURNEMOUTH

- General institutional information can be found at the Arts University Bournemouth main webpage <https://aub.ac.uk/>
- Admissions information can be found AUB's Admissions Policy. For admissions information specific to a particular course students should contact the international office for further advice at international@aub.ac.uk
- Generic financial aid information (including contact information) can be obtained from the Student Funding webpages and the Scholarships webpage.
- Specific financial aid information for US Citizens, including for the US Department of Education's Direct Loan programmes can be obtained from the US Funding webpages. Queries regarding this can be directed to usloans@aub.ac.uk

3. Student Financial Aid Information

- Information on all need-based and non-need-based government, local, private and institutional student financial assistance programs are available on the Student Fees and Financial Support webpages. Arts University Bournemouth is a UK higher education institution, and most funding is only available to UK/EU students.
- Federal aid and US-based private student loan information is available from AUB's US Loans webpage.
- The general Terms and Conditions in force at AUB for all students (regardless of their funding source) are available from our Regulations page.
- Criteria for approving students for Federal Student Aid are dependent upon the recipient satisfying the Federal Student Aid rules for eligibility, and AUB's rules for admission and continuation of study.
- Eligibility requirements and procedures for applying for aid are available from our US Financial Aid webpage. Students will also be contacted about this when AUB receives notification of a FAFSA application, and an offer of study has been made by AUB or its academic schools/departments.
- The determination of the maximum amount of combined Federal Student Aid and/or private student loans is capped at the value of the 'Cost of Attendance' as determined by Arts University Bournemouth.
- Federal Student Aid is disbursed at the start of each term of the academic year (or as near to the start of term as possible for late applicants) and is disbursed through the means of GBP bank transfers.
- Students have a right to cancel all or part of their Federal Student Aid within 30 days of receipt of notification of the loans being originated.
- Students have the right to cancel all future disbursements at any point within the academic year prior to the relevant future disbursement dates. In accordance with Federal Student Aid regulations students will be reminded that the disbursement is due at least 14 days before the disbursement date and will be given an opportunity to cancel or reduce disbursements. Where a disbursement date has already passed AUB will not be able to reduce the amount disbursed however the student can return unrequired funds to the US Department of Education within 120 days of the disbursement date without incurring interest or other fees; students are solely responsible for doing so and should contact their Direct Loan Servicing Centre for guidance on how to return the unrequired funds.

- Students have the responsibility to remain in ‘good-standing’ with AUB. Good-standing means that the student has maintained: a) appropriate conduct within the student disciplinary regulations and does not have disciplinary procedures outstanding; b) appropriate conduct within AUB’s Fees Policy and does not have outstanding debt which is older than its due-dates; c) appropriate conduct within the student academic regulations and does not have any Notices against them under the relevant regulations.
- Students have an obligation to progress at a satisfactory academic rate within the Federal Aid program and AUB’s policy on Satisfactory Academic Progress is available in the ‘Information for Students Receiving Federal Student Aid’ section of AUB’s Federal Student Aid webpage.
- The terms of any loans received through Federal Student Aid are available to all students through the Master Promissory Notes (MPN), and the Entrance and Exit Counselling requirements of the Federal Student Aid process at AUB. AUB requires a) new MPNs to be completed during each year of access to Federal Student Aid; b) Entrance Counselling to be completed at the beginning of each academic year of study; c) Exit counselling to be completed before the end of the final term in the student’s final year of study. Through these means students are informed of the Federal Terms & Conditions of their loans, provided with sample loan repayment schedules, and counselled in the necessity of repaying their loans.
- All US Citizens and eligible non-US nationals receiving Federal Student Aid at AUB are obliged meet the requirements of the following organisations to maintain their entitlement to US Student Federal Aid: Arts University Bournemouth; Federal Student Aid and the US Department of Education; UK Visas & Immigration (UKVI) and the UK Home Office.

4. Facilities and Services available to students with disabilities

AUB’s Disability Service can provide information and support for all students with disabilities. Information about the service, including contact details, can be on their webpage.

5. Cost of Attendance

- The total Cost of Attendance, and therefore the maximum amount of funding available, is the calculated cost of tuition fees plus expected living costs for the current academic year of study, converted into USD. Information on the Cost of Attendance can be found on our US loans website under heading ‘Cost of Attendance’.
- AUB’s tuition fees vary depending upon the course being followed, the student’s residency status and other criteria. Information on the tuition fees for specific circumstances can be found on the Fees and Financial Support website.
- Living costs are assessed according to a local average for room rental, board (food and utilities costs), course books and stationery, travel, and personal costs. Students with exceptional additional essential costs (due to a disability for example) can request that these also be taken into consideration by emailing usloans@aub.ac.uk.

6. Refund Policy, Requirements for Withdrawal and Return of Title IV Financial Aid

- AUB’s Refund Policy can be found within the current Fees Policy here.
- Refund policies with respect to living arrangements (e.g. rent and utilities costs) will be dependent upon any contract that was signed by the student and AUB is unable to advise on these. Information and clarification should be sought from the landlord (or their agents) and the relevant utility provider, as appropriate.

ARTS UNIVERSITY BOURNEMOUTH

- Student's wishing to withdraw from AUB before the completion of their studies must notify their academic school/department of their wish to withdraw and the follow the relevant withdrawal process as advised by the academic school/department.
- Once a student is considered withdrawn from study AUB will calculate whether any loan funds are due to be returned to the US Department of Education in line with the Return of Title IV Funds Policy available in the 'Refund Policy' section of AUB's US loans webpage

7. Programmes ineligible for Federal Student Aid

- AUB is only authorised to provide Federal Student Aid for Foundation Diploma, Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctoral programmes (including integrated MPhil/PhD courses).
- Certificates of Higher Education, Top-up Programmes, Graduate Certificates, and Graduate Diplomas are not eligible for Federal Student Aid.
- Programmes that are self-directed, distance learning, or by correspondence, in whole or in part, are not eligible for Federal Student Aid.
- Programmes studied in part at another UK or overseas (excluding institutions in the United States) higher education institution that is not authorised to provide Federal Student Aid are only eligible for Federal Student Aid if the proportion of study at the other institution is 25% of the overall course duration or less.
- Programmes which involve study in the United States are only eligible for Federal Student Aid if 25% or less of the programme is taught in the US, and the institution in the US is an eligible institution. There are separate rules for PhD candidates who are intending to perform research in the United States - please contact usloans@aub.ac.uk for advice before making any arrangements.

8. Academic Program (Educational Program, Instructional Facilities, and Faculty)

- Meningitis (ACWY)
- MMR (measles, mumps, and rubella also known as German measles).
- Diphtheria
- Polio
- Tetanus
- Tuberculosis

Prospective students should check with their local medical practitioner to ensure that their vaccinations are current, and for up-to-date information relevant to the UK.

13. Textbook Information

Course modules are accompanied, where relevant, with reading lists and textbook suggestions. Online resources are also listed within the module documentation or within AUB's online academic portal. Details of how to access relevant sources will be provided to students on enrolment.

14. Privacy of Student Records – Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

- The Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) does not apply within the UK however the UK has similar legislation designed to protect personal data called the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UKGDPR). AUB's Data Protection policies, available here, fulfil our requirements under the GDPR.
- AUB will confirm ongoing attendance and academic achievement with the US Department of Education as required by Federal Student Aid regulations. By applying for, and accepting, Federal Student Aid students are acknowledging and consenting to this sharing of data.
