ARTS UNIVERSITY BOURNEMOUTH

PROGRAMME SPECIFICATION

The Programme Specification provides a summary of the main features of the BA (Hons) Acting course, and the learning outcomes that a ‘typical’ student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if they pass the course.

Further detailed information on the learning outcomes, content and teaching and learning methods of each unit may be found within this Handbook and the online Unit Information, which is available on your course blog.

Contact Hours and Assessment

Contact hours include all scheduled teaching sessions, but also supervised time in the workshop or studio. In line with national guidance, we include in our calculation of contact hours all the time which is scheduled in the studio for independent study which is also supported by staff (either academic staff, or technicians).

The information provided below gives the proportion of your study time which constitutes contact hours. Where there are optional routes through the course, we have used the figures for the most popular option.

The figures below set out the proportion of your assessment which will be coursework or written exams and, where appropriate, practical assessment (such as a performance) or placement. Where there are optional routes through the course, we have used the figures for the most popular option.

Course Description

The BA (Hons) Acting course has been designed to recognise the power of performance to change people’s lives and the artistic, educational, social and political power of performance to facilitate understanding and growth in us as humans. We believe in each actor having their own voice as an artist and as a creator. Developing the ability to create your own opportunities is as important as the ability to work effectively and professionally, and the ability to generate and sustain individual work is crucial to an actor’s continued growth and development throughout their career. Learning to act is a continuous process of personal discovery and exploration.

We believe that no one individual is any more or less valuable to the performance than any other and that the performance event itself should be a true ensemble experience. Therefore, the process of development for each actor is not done in competition. Personal brilliance is only important to the demands of the event, the needs of the audience and the task that the team must fulfil together.

Significant opportunities exist for collaboration between you as an acting student and the students on other AUB courses such as Costume and Performance Design, Film Production, Creative Events Management, Make-up for Media and Performance, Fine Art, Animation Production and Photography. The synergy of activity on the courses at AUB is an important part of your development as an artist and contributor to our national and global community.

Professional opportunities for actors are increasingly broad and the course aims to address key concepts and skills that can be adapted to a wide range of performance media and contexts. In light of this, the course team does not focus upon a single methodology, but provides you with the tools to develop yourself as a professional and confident performer and individual.
Course Aims

The course aims to:

A1 Enable you to develop a comprehensive knowledge and application of a wide range of physical and vocal skills in performance.

A2 Enable you to develop an understanding and appreciation of key performance genres, their place within the broader cultural context and the inter-relationship between theory and practice.

A3 Provide opportunities to participate in collaborative working situations that will develop your practical skills and the ability to work with others.

A4 Provide a comprehensive understanding of the professional and ethical behaviour (i.e. time management, discipline, rehearsal, performance and industry protocols) expected in order to meet the demands of the performance industry.

A5 Demonstrate strategies for identifying personal strengths and needs through self-reflection and self-management.

A6 Enable you to develop an understanding of the business/entrepreneurial requirements of performance making (budgeting for performance, use of technology, targeting key audiences etc.).

A7 Provide you with the tools to describe, theorise, interpret, and evaluate performance texts and performance events from a range of critical perspectives.

Course Outcomes

By the end of the course you will be able to:

LO1 Demonstrate a comprehensive knowledge of, and apply a wide range of physical and vocal skills in performance.

LO2 Understand and appreciate key performance genres, their place within the broader cultural context and their inter-relationship with theory and practice.

LO3 Participate in collaborative working situations that will develop your practical skills and the ability to work with others.

LO4 Demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of the professional and ethical behaviour (i.e. time management, discipline, rehearsal, performance and industry protocols) expected in order to meet the demands of the performance industry.

LO5 Apply strategies for identifying personal strengths and needs through self-reflection and self-management.
LO6 Demonstrate an understanding of, and facility for, the business/entrepreneurial requirements of performance making (budgeting for performance, use of technology, targeting key audiences etc.).

LO7 Demonstrate the ability to describe, theorise, interpret, and evaluate performance texts and performance events from a range of critical perspectives.

Learning and Teaching Strategies

Within this area of performance experiential learning is a key principle of study and your work throughout the course reflects the collaborative nature of acting.

Throughout the degree you will experience both tutor-led learning, including the participation of professional practitioners, and self-directed methods of learning (through independent learning, negotiated practice and research work). In this way you will be able to develop an increasing independence and a positive attitude towards life-long learning.

The course objectives are met by deploying a wide variety of teaching and learning methods including rehearsal, performance, ensemble working, workshops, lectures, seminars, group critiques and tutorials. In consultation with the Course Leader, staff are responsible for co-ordinating individual units of study, and for selecting appropriate methods of delivery according to subject matter and student experience.

The methods employed induct you to the disciplines required of a creative practitioner and promote the development of transferable skills.

The study time allocated to each unit in the course incorporates a balance of formal teaching, tutorial support and independent learning. The course is structured progressively to provide increased opportunities for independent learning as you reach the later stages of the course.

The progressive promotion of independent learning reflects your anticipated maturity as a student and allows you to direct your learning towards individual goals. The teaching in Level 4 is directed at providing you with the knowledge, concepts and skills to take increasing responsibility for the management of your own learning as you move on to Levels 5 and 6.

Ensemble working reflects the importance of team work in the discipline of acting and there are many opportunities to work in teams to learn the value of peer co-operation.

The integration of theory and practice is promoted and reinforced through a team-teaching approach. Lectures, seminars and tutorials may be delivered by team members, as appropriate, in the creative learning environment.

Assessment

Each unit is assessed separately, and the assessment forms part of the unit. Assessment both provides a measure of your achievement, and also gives you regular feedback on how your learning is developing.

For every unit of your course, we will inform you of what you are expected to learn; what you have to submit; how your work will be assessed; and the deadline for presenting your work for assessment. This is made available through Unit Information, which is on your course blog.

You will receive a final mark for each unit in the form of a percentage, which will be recorded on your formal record of achievement (transcript). Each component of assessment is graded using a notched marking scale, whereby only certain marks are used within each grade. The only marks available within any ten-point band are *2, *5 and *8 (e.g. 62, 65, 68). These marks correspond to a low, mid, and high level of achievement within each grade band.

The University has agreed that, during 2019/20, it will run a pilot project. This will mean that on some courses, one unit at Level 4 will be assessed on a Pass / Fail basis only, with written feedback but no numerical grade. If your course has been selected for the pilot, your Course Leader will tell you this, and the details will be clearly expressed on the Unit Information Sheet.

All learning outcomes must be passed to successfully complete the unit.

On successful completion of your Honours degree course, you will be awarded a degree classification based on your unit marks. The final classification is determined using all unit marks at Levels 5 and 6 using two different algorithms, which are detailed in the HE Student Regulations. If the two algorithms produce different results, you will be awarded the higher class of degree.

If you have joined Level 6 through either the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) route or having completed a Foundation Degree (FdA), the final classification is determined using only your unit marks at Level 6.

Course Structure

All students are registered for the award of BA (Hons); however, exit awards are available if you leave the course early, having successfully completed one or two levels. If you successfully complete a level of the course, you will automatically be entitled to progress to the next level.

For the award of a Certificate of Higher Education (CertHE), you must have achieved a minimum of 120 credits at Level 4. This qualification may be awarded if you leave the University following successful completion of the first year of your course.

For the award of a Diploma of Higher Education (DipHE), you must have achieved a minimum of 240 credits of which a minimum of 120 must be at Level 5. This qualification may be awarded if you leave the University following successful completion of the second year of your course.

For the award of a BA (Hons) you must have achieved a minimum of 360 credits of which a minimum of 240 must be at Level 5 or above, of which a minimum of 120 credits must be at Level 6. This qualification will be awarded upon successful completion of your course.

A BA without Honours may be awarded if you have achieved 300 credits, at least 180 of which are at Level 5 or above, and at least 60 of which are at Level 6.
Course Content

Level 4

Level 4 provides a foundation enabling you to develop a methodological approach to psychophysical Acting, introducing the tools and techniques helpful in creating performances in realistic drama for the stage and screen. The work is Stanislavski-based, and you will be introduced to the intellectual, imaginative and physical skills that you will need to acquire and to develop.

Work proceeds through a series of practical, studio-based acting exercises and projects that are underpinned by seminar and lecture-based classes which provide additional literary, theoretical and historical contexts for your practical work. Process and performance are interconnected and are seen as equal experiences that act as a catalyst for personal and professional development.

Throughout this first year you will also have movement, voice and singing classes. These are highly practical classes that provide you with specific skills and experiences that will further support your work on the acting units and will introduce you to the particularities of these individual disciplines.

By the end of this level you will have a sound knowledge of the basic concepts of acting.

Level 5

After acquiring the understanding, skills and techniques that enable you to approach work using the concept of Psychological Realism, Level 5 consists of more advanced work concerned with aspects of dramatic structure and the implications of style for the actor. In Level 4 practical work took the form of exercises which, in general, did not require you to take into account the needs of the audience, and enabled you to focus on the internal creative processes of psychologically motivated work. In Level 5, you will learn to regard the audience as an integral factor in the creative process. Practical work will take the form of workshops leading to performance which will be viewed by an internal audience. As in Level 4 process and performance are interconnected and are seen as equal experiences that act as a catalyst for personal and professional development.

You will continue to develop a personal methodological approach to acting which will be evidenced in your practical work and in your process and performance essays. You will also further develop your investigative skills in relation to the world of the play, and explore the demands of different kinds of dramatic structures and styles of performance, nationally and internationally, and their implications for the actor.

Simultaneously, you will explore specific theoretical and/or practice-based interests that you may have a wish to pursue further as well as identifying career and postgraduate study options that will be available to you upon graduation. You will also further develop your research and communication skills and prepare for the independent study opportunities available to you in your final year.

As in Level 4, you will have movement, voice and singing classes as part of your acting units. These classes will expand on the body of knowledge acquired in these disciplines in the previous year and will ask you to further integrate these skills into your work in the acting classes.

By the end of this stage in the course, you should be confident about your ability to organise your working methods. You will have developed investigative techniques, textual analysis skills, and physical/vocal skills to a higher level, and you will be able to identify different performance styles and identify your work in the context of an international performance community. You will be prepared with key knowledge and skills that will allow you to enter the third year of the course, which is production based, with confidence.

Level 6

Level 6 enables you to extend the scope and depth of your exploration of the acting process by providing you with a range of creative challenges. In preparation for professional life, your work in this year of study will be focused on work related study in theatre production. You will be given the opportunity to test the working methods you have developed in Levels 4 and 5 by applying them to the creation of a series of characters in plays that will vary in the range and complexity of their demands. At this level of study students would be expected to understand how process and performance are interconnected and can be seen as equal experiences that act as a catalyst for personal and professional development.

The Investigative Study unit presents the opportunity to pursue a course of advanced independent research and allows you to demonstrate that the level of your skills in research, analysis, and criticism enables you to articulate a discursive argument at a level appropriate to the award of BA with Honours.

This level provides you with the opportunity to evaluate your development as an artist, consider your strengths and weaknesses, develop an understanding of the business aspects of being an actor, and to develop audition/interview techniques and awareness that will prepare you with the necessary skills and knowledge to manage your career and approach potential employers and employment opportunities in a professional manner.

Generic Reading List

The list below comprises a range of library resources by subject area, which you might find useful for your research throughout your degree. This list is intended to give you an overview of some of the theoretical and conceptual frameworks that relate to acting, but it is not exhaustive, and you are encouraged to research your individual projects independently. The titles on the list are recommendations only, and whilst you will not be expected to consult all of the material or purchase an extensive selection of books, it will be your responsibility to work with your tutor to identify the resources that are essential to your particular research area.

The list does not include plays or online resources; for these, please refer to the online Unit Information or consult your tutor or subject librarian.
