Course Description

Welcome to Dance at the Arts University Bournemouth (AUB), in partnership with Pavilion Dance South West*(PDSW).

Rooted in a professional and industry-focused setting, this course offers you excellent facilities for dance, regular access to professional performance and contact with dancers, choreographers and producers at the forefront of their profession. We hope you will enjoy your time with us and that you will make the most of the opportunities you will encounter as part of a vibrant, innovative, collaborative performing arts community.

Responding directly to the current dance industry, this course allows you to collaborate with other art forms and organisations, to create responses that are relevant and that are constantly pushing the boundaries as to what is expected of a dancer. From day one, you will experience a choreographic and collaborative focus, constantly being encouraged to develop and test creative ideas as a performer, choreographer and producer enabling others to experience dance as an inclusive art form and gain a greater understanding of the industry. We are proud to be in partnership with PDSW, a regional dance agency and a working dance house. This unique agreement will allow you the chance to explore a wide range of industry opportunities, as part of your dance curriculum. You'll get the chance to spend time in a building and be a part of an organisation with an international reputation as a touring venue and for its community programmes.

Whether your interest is in performing, choreography, event producing or teaching, the BA (Hons) Dance course allows you the chance to create independent responses, crafted in a supportive and creative makers' environment.

Dance graduates need to be both creative makers and adaptable artists. The dance course at Arts University Bournemouth provides you with a supportive and professional environment to explore, collaborate, create, produce and perform in. A place to experiment with new ideas with the focused aim of creating an aspirational graduate with relevant and real time experience of the sector they wish to be employed in.

Dance is as a form of artistic expression that transcends racial, cultural and political boundaries and contributes a changing cultural landscape, and art form that invites audiences to experience a language more universal than the spoken word, one that engages and excites and informs.

BA (Hons) Dance has been developed as a response to the changing landscape of the dance and arts ecology. As such it recognises the diversity and interdisciplinary nature of contemporary performance and stresses the need to produce versatile, open-minded and curious graduates who can gain employment across the full spectrum of the industry.

The ability to generate, present and sustain one's own work is crucial to a career in dance and the course ensures these skill sets are explored and mastered. We believe in fostering creativity and that the ability to create one's own opportunities is equally as important as being able to work effectively and professionally. In the making of original work, you will consider how form, style and structure can affect content, meaning and audience engagement. You will study the motives for the creation of material: social, political, educational and commercial, whilst developing key professional skills required for the workplace, such as selecting work to be developed, project management and effective marketing, as well as learning about the structures and policies of dance organisations in the UK, professional standards and codes of conduct.

During your time at the Arts University Bournemouth, you will make, perform, produce and apply dance in a variety of environments and contexts. You will be able to tailor your final year to reflect your own interests and strengths with support and advice from the faculty and our partner organisation, Pavilion Dance South West. Rooted in a professional and industry-focused context, this course offers you excellent facilities for dance, regular access to professional performance and contact with dancers, choreographers and producers at the forefront of their profession.

The course has a strong technical and practical foundation – offering classes and workshops in Strength and Conditioning, Pilates and Yoga as well as Contemporary techniques such as Release, Cunningham, Contact Improvisation and Graham. We also place a strong emphasis on the theoretical and contextual study of Dance and the dance industry and you will be expected to complete written assignments and presentations to the highest standards.

The course offers you the opportunity to explore your potential as a performer, choreographer, practitioner or producer or to develop your own portfolio career. You will have opportunities to explore opportunities on the course, will graduate with a clear sense of your own skills and career direction and will have the skills and knowledge to take those steps into industry or further study.

During your time on the course, you will develop personal and working relationships with professionals from the Dance industry and also with colleagues from other AUB disciplines such as Costume, and Performance Design, Film Production, Events Management, Animation, Illustration and Creative Writing and these relationships will form the beginning of your professional network.

Learning and Teaching Strategies

The association between the Arts University Bournemouth and Pavilion Dance South West responds strategically to the needs and conditions of the dance sector nationally and will help to strengthen the core of the course, which is to provide you with an authentic experience of what work opportunities are available to you in the dance industry and the skills and experience you will need in these areas in order to gain employment. Where appropriate, the course offers regular and sustained contact with and delivery by national and international dancers, choreographers, practitioners and producers working in the dance profession and related industries.

Experiential learning is a key principle of study and your work throughout the course reflects the collaborative nature of dance. Throughout the degree, you will experience both tutor-led learning with specialist studies tutors and self-directed methods of learning (through negotiated practice and research work). In this way you will be able to develop an increasing independence and a positive attitude to life-long learning.

The course objectives are met by deploying a wide variety of teaching and learning methods including rehearsal, performance, ensemble working, workshops, lectures, seminars, group critiques and tutorials. In consultation with the Course Leader, the teaching team is responsible for co-ordinating individual units of study, and for selecting appropriate methods of delivery according to subject matter and student experience.

The delivery methods are informed by the University's Strategic Plan and share the over-arching aims:

- i) to enable each student to realise his/her potential;
- ii) to develop and support individual learner autonomy;
- iii) to promote the acquisition of transferable/key skills;
- iv) to develop and promote best practice in approaches to teaching, learning and assessment;
- v) to promote the sharing of good practice across the University, building on best practice both within the University and nationally.

The course uses a variety of assessment methods to test your knowledge and understanding of all aspects of contemporary dance performance practice.

- Essay
- Presentation
- Critical Evaluation (with written and verbal feedback)
- Research and Reflective Log Book (a written background research that underpins your learning and practice and includes a word limited critical reflection of your learning and development processes and performances)
- Intensive Practical Industry Project (working in a professional context in partnership with professional performance artists or within the wider dance community that will culminate in an assessed end product that could be, for example, workshop delivery, dance performance, or choreographic lab)

There may also be occasions where digital delivery is appropriate. Where this is the case, this might include on-line lectures, seminars, presentations, and one to one tutorials. It is important that you engage with on-line course delivery in the same way that you would if you were on campus.

Assessment

Each unit is assessed separately, and the assessment forms part of the unit. Assessment both provides a measure of your achievement, and also gives you regular feedback on how your learning is developing.

Continuous Assessment (ongoing attendance and engagement in taught sessions and independent rehearsals, so your tutor can see the progression you have made through the unit. This is especially important for your dance technique, whereby you will be expected to work continuously throughout the unit to develop and sustain your movement skills).

For every unit of your course, we will inform you of what you are expected to learn; what you have to submit; how your work will be assessed; and the deadline for presenting your work for assessment.

A minimum of one unit at Level 4 will be assessed on a pass/fail basis, with written feedback but no numerical grade. All other units will be given a percentage mark.

The final mark for each unit will be recorded on your formal record of achievement (transcript). With the exception of the pass/fail unit, each component of assessment is graded using a notched marking scale, whereby only certain marks are used within each grade. The only marks available within any ten-point band are *2, *5 and *8 (e.g. 62, 65, 68). These marks correspond to a low, mid, and high level of achievement within each grade band.

All learning outcomes must be passed to successfully complete the unit.

On successful completion of your Honours degree course, you will be awarded a degree classification based on your unit marks. The final classification is determined using all unit marks at Levels 5 and 6.

If you have joined Level 6 through either the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) route or having completed a Foundation Degree (FdA), the final classification is determined using only your unit marks at Level 6.

Core Values and Skills

In developing courses, the University wanted to create a curriculum that reflected its values and ethos. It should prepare you for the future not only in enabling you to have a successful career, but we also want to empower you with the knowledge, skills and passion to have a positive impact on the world and be an agent for change. We have drawn from the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) (<https://sdgs.un.org/goals>) which have informed our values of Equality, Diversity and Inclusion as well as our Graduate Attributes.

Equalities Diversity and Inclusion (EDI)

“We are better for our diversity. We are enriched by the depth of respect we have for each other and the strength of our relationships with our people, our places and the planet. Through our commitment to working with those who are different to us, or challenge us, we grow stronger together, creating new synergies, global connections and sustainable futures.” (AUB Strategy 2030)

As an organisation we have moral, social and legal obligations to fulfil in terms of EDI, and in doing so our commitment is to put EDI at the heart of every area of activity. It is not covered as a separate, stand-alone section, rather it forms an integral part of the curriculum, throughout your study here.

Graduate Attributes (GA)

Over recent years, there has been an increasing pace of change, technological, social, environmental. This has been further impacted by the world-wide pandemic effecting significant change in the global economy and the employment market.

In this context, the University has recognised the importance of developing AUB graduates who have the attributes to be able to build their career, adapting to different circumstances and embracing changes. A suite of attributes have been defined that we feel are particularly appropriate to the creative courses that we deliver and to AUB’s core values; during your course, both curricular and extra-curricular activities will give you the opportunity to prepare for your working career.

Course Content

The course consists of three levels, each lasting one academic year of full-time study.
