Where?

Online - While we understand this online programme cannot fully replace the face-to-face, on-campus experience, we intend our online offer to provide you the opportunity to experience a collegiate-level, immersive, and challenging curriculum. Our online model will focus on small group activities which are designed to foster creativity and individuality and will culminate in potential work for undergraduate application portfolios. We will provide a supportive environment for independent practice whilst introducing you to the study of contemporary art.
